Death Toll Is Reported At
Somewhere Between 31 and 50

C. C. Davis Says

Los Angeles, Jan. 1.—(P)—Tragedy rolled through the lowlands about Los Angeles today in the form of a deluge, leaving a death toll tentatively reported at somewhere between 31 and 50 or more persons.

Twelve inches or more of rain fell in the foothills regions in the 24 hours ending at 10 o'clock this morning. The mighty flow of water ensuing flooded valleys and lowlands, drove thousands from their homes, caused untold damage to automobiles and inflicted great property damage.

The downtown became intense last night, washing the old year out and the new year in.

The Pasadena Rose Bowl, scene of the football classic this afternoon between the University of California and Stanford University, was virtually covered with water but officials of the game decided against postponement of the game.

Communication Cut Off

Communication was cut off from the disaster centers and exact reports on the toll of life and property could not be obtained readily. Bridges fell under the strain, in some cases carrying new year's eve merry-makers to their deaths. Train service was upset.

In the center of Los Angeles the rainfall in twenty-four hours was 14 inches, establishing an all time record.

At Mount Wilson, crest of the range back of Los Angeles, the storm registered 12.33 inches.

The sector of greatest havoc was the area in the hills back of Glendale, known as the Lacrescenta-Montrose region, which a few weeks ago was denuded of trees and shrubs in a disastrous forest fire.

Through the canyons and gullies of this foothill area boiling streams rushed down arroyos ordinarily dry.

Emergency crews of life savers went into this area last night, but all direct communication was cut off.

One report from two college men sent into the area with an emergency short wave wireless set, was that thirty bodies had been recovered. There was no confirmation of this report, although the two young men said the information was given to them by a police official.

Another message received in Pasadena, some ten miles away, indicated that seven bodies had been recovered in this Montrose-Lacrescenta area. Walls of water, described at 25 feet high, were reported as having crashed down the largest valley of the fire-denuded region. It tore through the American Legion hall at Montrose, crushing the structure and resulting in the death of Mrs. Myrtle Adams, president of the Montrose branch of the Red Cross, and Mrs. Reil, a volunteer worker.

Some eight miles down the foothills, on the floor of San Fernando Valley, the city of Glendale, nearest community to the stricken foothill towns, recorded seven flood victims of its own.

Some twenty miles to the southeast in the San Gabriel Valley, center of the suburban citrus region, five persons drowned when an automobile plunged into the torrent of what usually was a dry arroyo. The sixth occupant escaped by swimming.

Four were reported missing in the Los Angeles valley, which is but a dry gulch some 364 days of the year.

There was one death in Monterey Park. A woman drowned as she stepped from her automobile and was swept beneath it.

Seven traffic deaths were reported in various sections as a result of the storm.

Hollywood, Beverly Hills and Santa Monica, in the foothills of the Santa Monica mountains, were strewn with debris from some six inches of rain. The lowland section of Venice was flooded.

In this lowland area between Culver City and Venice, there was from two to seven feet of water, driving some 3,500 persons from 1200 homes that were abandoned.

97 PER CENT OF
BANK DEPOSITS
TO BE INSURED

Walter J. Cummings
Makes Report To President

Washington, Jan. 1.—(P)—President Roosevelt was informed tonight that 87 per cent of the nation's bank deposits would be insured under the new deposit insurance which becomes effective tomorrow.

Walter J. Cummings, chairman of the federal deposit insurance corporation, reported to Mr. Roosevelt that deposits in 13,423 banks will be insured.

He said that only 141 banks had been found ineligible and predicted that a number of them might be insured by making certain corrections.

Thus, tomorrow for the first time in American history depositors of sums up to $2,500 will be insured against loss.

After July 1 this insurance will be increased to $10,000.

"I congratulate you," wrote President Roosevelt in response to the report of Cummings, and E. G. Bennett and J. P. T. O'Connor, "Because you have in these few months accomplished with complete success a gigantic task which the pessimists said could not possibly be done before January 1."

"That 97 per cent of the bank deposits of the nation are insured will give renewed faith."

"I am also happy to know of the fine cooperation given to you by the reconstruction finance corporation."

All national banks and members of the federal reserve system are automatically insured under the new federal law.

To become members of the federal insurance guarantee, state banks were required to meet rigid conditions by the federal authorities.

The reconstruction finance corporation opened its vaults to sound institutions requiring additional backing.

By the purchase of this capital stock in many institutions, the government has perhaps the greatest interest in and control over the banking structure of the nation in recent history.

FAIR PRICES
ESTABLISHED
BY FASCISTS

New System Approved
By Grand Council
Of Fascism

By John Lloyd
Associated Press Foreign Staff

Rome, Jan. 1.—(P)—Italians looked forward today to a new year of "fair prices" established by the state as part of an economic housecleaning.

Under the new system, approved recently by the grand council of fascism and subject to inauguration officially this month, law-making, price-fixing, and competition-regulating powers are given 13 corporations or guilds working through a national council and Premier Mussolini.

The individual guild first must go through the manufacturing process of the product it produces. Its duty then will be to set a "fair price," allowing a margin of profit and at the same time seeing that the workers are properly remunerated and the public not overcharged.

As a cabinet minister or an under-secretary is to preside over each of the 43 corporations, which embrace all branches of commerce, industry, and the professions, the state has assured itself a predominant part in this price fixing.

That fact is causing the vested interests to worry. Whether the judgment of the state will uphold their ideas of a fair profit is in many cases problematical.

Gino Arias, a member of the national council of corporations—supreme law-making body of the new system—called it the "corporate profit" but did not disclose what margin it will embrace.

He added that freedom of initiative is preserved under the new order, "but bound by its due responsibilities," it will be regulated, he said, "when necessary to guarantee its subordination to the interests of the people."

He declared that the only "thing eliminated is 'arbitrary action by private groups to the damage of the others in the same producing field.'"

COMMITTEE IS NAMED TO OPEN
G. O. P. CAMPAIGN

Is First Move To Rebuild
Republican Party Since
Defeat in 1932

Washington, Jan. 1.—(P)—In the first move to rebuild the Republican party since the overwhelming defeat of 1932, Senator McNary, senate leader, today named a committee of nine to conduct the campaign for election of Republican senators next fall.

Senator Hastings of Delaware was appointed to head the committee, closely balanced between the conservative and progressive factions of the party.

McNary made a bid for a united front with the announcement that the committee would support all Republican candidates and would not go behind their nominations to determine what faction they represented.

"There will be no discrimination with respect to the definition of the word Republicanism," he said.

Senator Dickinson of Iowa, one of the Republicans who has been most outspoken in criticism of the Democratic administration, was named as vice chairman of the committee.

Others named were: Capper of Kansas, Norbeck of South Dakota, White of Maine, Nye of North Dakota, Barbour of New Jersey, Steiwer of Oregon and Carey of Wyoming.

Ordinarily of minor importance, the senatorial campaign committee is expected to play an influential part in this year's election because of the financial importance of the national committee.

McNary said it would conduct its own campaign to raise funds for support of the Republican candidates, with headquarters in New York, and sub-headquarters in Chicago.

SEA MONSTER
IS REPORTED
OFF SCOTLAND

London Newspapers
Claim It Is Just
"A Racket"

By Burdette Johns.
Associated Press Foreign Staff.

London, Jan. 1.—(P)—The question whether it is a monster sea monster or a "monster racket" which is threatening about in the cold waters of Scotland's Loch Ness was thrashed out today in London's newspapers.

Several times in the last few weeks the press has duly noted reports of a monster cavorting in the otherwise peaceful waters of the Ness. Now comes no less an authority than W. U. Goodbody, a member of the Loch Ness fishery board, to state that he, personally, saw the creature.

Everybody Upset.

And is everybody upset?

Even the conservative Times succumbed to the monstrous urge, printing a picture of the purported serpent. Then came the Daily Herald, hinting darkly that it was all a "monster racket" saying the residents about the Scottish lake "fear only one thing more than the monster being at large—and that is that it may be caught."

The Herald elaborated on this theme, indicating it believed the capture of the monster of the Ness would seriously detract from a growing tourist boom.

It was even said that plans are afoot to build a "Hotel Monster" on the shore of Loch Ness to accommodate the curious.

Goodbody's testimony acted as a spark to touch off a serious discussion of a phenomenon which previously had been the topic of newspaper funsters and persons who lingered over their afternoon tea well into the cocktail hour.

The fishery board member averred he peered through binoculars to get a close-up view of what he described as "a long, dark object" bearing eight or nine humps which move to in the lake 400 yards offshore.

And still there are those who scoff!

SEAPLANE SETS
NEW NON-STOP
FLIGHT RECORD

French Ship Flies 2666 Miles
With Its Crew Of Five Men

St. Louis, Senegal, Jan. 1.—(P)—Another "Southern Cross"—this time a French seaplane—proved itself a fit namesake of its transatlantic and transpacific predecessors today by setting a non-stop seaplane flight record of 2,666 miles.

The new Southern Cross was flown from Berre, France, here to Saint Louis as a test, preparatory to flying the South Atlantic to South America. It is designed to operate in the South Atlantic airmail service, soon to be inaugurated on a regular basis by Air France, the consolidated French aviation company.

(The longest previous seaplane non-stop flight was made last September 3 by six United States Navy ships which flew in mass formation from Norfolk, Va., to Cocos, C. Z., a distance of 2,659 miles.)

The new record-holder is four-motored and designed for a crew of five—Capt. Germain Bonnot of the French navy, commanding; Lieut. Jean Pierre and Master Pilot Gauthier, first and second pilots; mechanic Dumuty and radio operator Enmont.

Each of the four motors develops 650 horsepower. The craft weighs 23 tons.

Although it is owned by the French government, the ship is one of three to be used in the regular service between France and South America of Air France, into which aeropostale, the present South American line, is being merged.

GERMAN NATION
ENTERS BRIGHT
FUTURE, CLAIM

Hitler Says Reich Is Firmly Cemented
Together

Associated Press Foreign Staff.

Berlin, Jan. 1.—Chancellor Adolf Hitler told President Paul von Hindenburg at a New Year's reception today that the German nation entered a brighter future when the aged president on last Jan. 30 entrusted to him the office of the chief executive.

Crediting von Hindenburg with having initiated a long absent unity in the nation, Hitler said "the power issuing therefrom enabled us to cement the Reich firmly together, call a halt in the religious, moral, and cultural decay, and to improve the country's economic position."

Want Peace.

"Thanks to your confidence in me and the government, we have been enabled, while guarding our honor and rights to equal treatment, to pursue a policy whose ultimate aim is, was, and will remain a true and sincere peace."

President von Hindenburg, wearing an evening dress suit adorned with the highest military decorations and with the comparatively young chancellor in evening dress, at his side, received the diplomatic corps and government officials in the first New Year's function in the Nazi third Reich.

Germany's expressed desire for peace furnished the burden of messages exchanged between the president and the papal nuncio, Cesare Orsenigo, dean of the diplomatic corps.

Berlin citizens were awakened this morning by a police reveille, a custom which was revived after being in abeyance since 1918.

A band playing "Deutschland Über Alles" and stirring old Prussian marches proceeded through the historic Brandenburg gate through Unter den Linden, and to the official residence of Herman Wilhelm Goerring, Prussian premier and Reichs minister without portfolio, where it played the march of the 12th regiment, to which Goering once belonged.

Despite the early hour great crowds were about to see the ceremony and also that of the mounting of the guard at the presidential mansion.

Berlin was bedecked with Nazi Swastika flags.

President von Hindenburg, apparently in excellent health, went through the day's ceremonies without showing any signs of fatigue.

Twice he appeared on the balcony of the mansion, waving his hand in response to cheers from the crowd below.

Hitler in the chancellery also had to bow his thanks repeatedly to cheering crowds.

BAD WEATHER
IS REPORTED
THRUOUT U. S.

New Cold Wave Will Sweep Over Nation
Forecaster Says

By the Associated Press.

Tragedy rode in on the New Year weather yesterday.

In Southern California a death toll mounted toward 50 in the lowland areas as a result of torrential rains that piled up at least 12 inches of rain in 24 hours.

Thousands were driven from their homes and property damage was great. Communication was cut off from many flooded areas and it was feared that loss of life in the isolated sections would boost the death list considerably.

Elsewhere over the nation was a medley of bad weather with the mercury poised for another downward dip.

The weather let loose a variety of New Year's gloom.

Rain, fog, and clouds made the first day of 1934 a dull and somber one in all but a few favored spots.

Kansas, Nebraska and South Dakota were promised exemption from the new cold wave, which was expected to envelop the country from New England to the Rockies, and in three favored states—Missouri, Iowa and Minnesota—Tuesday was expected to bring rising temperatures.

Rain did not stop the annual "Tournament of Roses" football game at Pasadena, although the downpour and let up only a few hours in the morning. The playing field, partly submerged in the morning, was drained by a battery of 11 pumps, sucking 5,000 gallons of water a minute from the stadium floor.

New Yorkers found New Year's day warm but sloppy, and Detroit awoke to a mild and rainy day which took a turn for the colder. Bright spot on the weather map was Florida. In Miami there was a brilliant sun for the annual New Year's football game.

Fog over Pennsylvania forced the New York to Los Angeles transport plane back into port at Camden, N. J.

Far down toward the bottom of the world, Admiral Byrd's flagship ploughed through the main Antarctic ice pack, detouring for bergs and floating ice peaks.

At least one other country fared no better than the United States. A cold gray fog made the day murky for London and the southern countries of England, causing four deaths and paralyzing road, rail and air travel.

Turkey Buzzard
Nearly Wrecks
Airmail Plane

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 1.—(P)—A turkey buzzard, one of a flock idly circling in the skies, did a sudden "wing turn" into a speeding mail plane in mid-air near here today and came near wrecking it.

The collision between the bird, weighing some eight or ten pounds, and the plane, flying 120 miles an hour, sent the buzzard's body crashing through the windshield to strike a glancing blow against Pilot Harry Musick's cheek.

Although he required first aid treatment from scratches from the buzzard's claws, Musick managed to right his plane and land safely at Bowman field here.

Dan Beard, copilot, and C. H. Ottermann of Tucson, Ariz., the only passenger aboard, escaped injury. The bird was killed by the crash.

The plane, American Airways, en route from Cincinnati to Nashville, was delayed a short time for de-ice and repairs to the windshield and for the pilot to borrow another suit of clothes.

Governor Henry Horner Takes Inventory And Predicts That
Nation On Road to Recovery

PHILIPPINES
INDEPENDENCE
RECOMMENDED

Six - Point Program Is Dispatched To
Roosevelt

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 1.—(P)—Henry Horner today took inventory of his first year as governor and announced that, "with the dawning of 1934, Illinois and the rest of the nation is well on the road to recovery and a new era."

Combining a New Year's greeting with a report of "definite progress and accomplishment" in carrying out his inaugural pledges, the governor declared his administration would seek reductions in local taxes and would refuse to yield in the legislative controversy over liquor control.

The address to the state was made from the executive mansion preceding the New Year's reception by the governor and other state officials.

"I simply want to reiterate my past assurance that I shall continue to serve my state and every part of it with the same zeal that has characterized my efforts during the year just passed," Mr. Horner said.

Many Problems Ahead.

"There are many problems ahead of us, but with your continued support and confidence, we shall conquer them. At the beginning of 1933, our problems seemed insurmountable; now they are being solved. Last year there was doubt and despair. Today, despair has given way to hope—not vain hope, but hope supported by results—for we in Illinois are on our way."

Only on taxes and liquor did he specifically discuss the future plans of the state administration, but financial affairs were reported in sound condition.

"As a result of the strict economy that is being practiced, the state now is living within its income, and the prospects are exceedingly bright for a balanced budget at the close of the present biennium," the governor said.

"The state employees are receiving their salaries promptly, our current bills are paid and discounted, and all bonds, retirements, interest and other fixed charges are met punctually."

"Laws have been enacted giving the per cent retail sales tax for providing the revenues with economies, made it possible to eliminate the 1934 tax levy on real and personal property."

"Having wiped out the state tax rate," he continued, "I assure the people of Illinois that I shall strive to bring about still further reduction in taxes locally insofar as this can be accomplished by state legislation and state action."

"There are too many local taxing bodies whose functions overlap one another, and whose expenditures are duplications. Hundreds of thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money are thus wasted annually."

"Laws have been adopted this year to enable the consolidation of all the parks in Chicago into one system. This will be submitted to a referendum vote. The approval of this law by popular vote will produce a great saving in the cost of their government. Other legislation to enforce local economies throughout the state has also been adopted."

In detail, the governor told of his action on the issues of 1933 and the work of the General Assembly.

"It has been truly said that our legislature enacted more progressive laws last year than any one of its predecessors, and for that it has my sincere thanks," Mr. Horner said.

One of the year's accomplishments was given as:

"Establishment of a better understanding between the different sections of the state. As a result, the legislature has granted to Chicago and Cook county every bit of legislation sought by them to help Chicago and Cook county in their local problems."

TWO KILLED, ONE
HURT WHEN TRAIN
HITS AUTO TRUCK

CWA Workers Are Dead And Engineer of Train Is Reported Dying

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 1.—(P)—Two men dead and one is believed to be dying as the result of a crash here today between a Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis train from Minneapolis and a truck carrying CWA workers.

Charles DeFord, 28, driver of the truck, and Glenn Price, 32, a co-worker, were killed. Both are of Omaha, C. S. Buxton, 60, of Omaha, engineer of the train, who lost both legs in the crash and was badly scalded, is not expected to live, hospital attendants said tonight.

Charles Stark, of Sioux City, Ia., fireman on the train, is also in the hospital. He was badly scalded but his condition was said to be not critical.

The crash took place at a grade crossing. The highway climbs steeply up to the tracks at the crossing and it is believed that DeFord did not see the train coming. He and Price had just dumped a load of brush to be used in rip-rap work on a sewer project and were returning to the loading point at the time.

The heavy truck was demolished by the impact and parts of it were thrown under the wheels of the engine, causing the locomotive to leave the track. The engine, struck in the rear by the following coaches, was turned back and landed on its side.

Michael Walsh Killed

Chicago, Jan. 1.—(P)—Michael Walsh, 40, described by police as the operator of a handbook, died today from gunshot wounds inflicted by four assailants who forced their way into his home and shot him as he lay in bed with his wife. The killers sped away in an automobile. No motive could be ascribed for the killing.

PHILIPPINES
INDEPENDENCE
RECOMMENDED

Six - Point Program Is Dispatched To
Roosevelt

New York, Jan. 1.—(P)—A six-point program of independence for the Philippines was recommended to President Roosevelt today by a committee sponsored by the foreign policy association and the world peace foundation.

Designed to "furnish a fair and equitable arrangement" satisfactory to both the United States and its insular possession, the program calls for once given a system of responsible government, subject to certain restricted rights of intervention by an American governor-general.

2. While enjoying this status, the islands should have the right to conclude certain treaties and be represented at international conferences.

3. This period of responsible government should terminate at the end of ten years, subject to the conclusion of an international neutralization agreement.

4. The United States should surrender all naval bases in the Philippines to take effect upon neutralization and independence. A Philippine neutralization agreement should be negotiated as part of a settlement of larger Pacific issues at the end of the war.

5. The United States and the Philippines should conclude a fifteen-year reciprocal agreement providing for moderate duties and for quotas on imports from each country into the other.

6. Filipino immigration into the United States after independence should be placed under the quota, or regulated by a reciprocal immigration agreement.

In order to provide a "statesmanlike solution of the problem," the committee said, "the initiative of the president is highly desirable."

The committee—which includes in its membership Roy W. Howard, the publisher, and President Glenn Frank, of the University of Wisconsin—raised serious objections to the Hare-Hawes-Cutting act passed by congress and rejected by the Philippines legislature.

The Hare-Hawes-Cutting act, the committee said forth, "is designed primarily to protect certain American interests rather than to achieve genuine independence for the Philippines. Political liberty is not a matter for commercial barter and we can fully understand why the Philippine legislature rejected the one-sided proposal by the last American congress."

In the opinion of the committee, either the Hare-Hawes-Cutting act must be drastically amended, or new legislation enacted if the United States is to meet its obligation."

OLD FEUD BREAKS
OUT AGAIN; TWO PERSONS KILLED

Louisiana Officers Start
Roundup of Travis And
Bridges Feudists

Kentwood, La., Jan. 1.—(P)—The finding of the bullet-pierced bodies of Bob Travis and his negro bodyguard on the banks of a creek today sent officers out on a roundup of Travis-Bridges feudists who have been shooting out grudges in Tangipahoa parish for years.

The old feud broke out again last October when Claude Bridges and Walter Travis were slain three days apart and Bob Travis was out on a $2,500 bond charged with killing Bridges. Residents said Bob Travis had been warned to stay out of the neighborhood where his body was found today full of buckshot.

Folk in this section prefer not to discuss the arguments of the Bridges and Travis clans, but they say there has been bad blood between the two families for 60 years. The feud is similar to the old Kentucky and Virginia mountain feuds and the people are descendants of mountaineers who came down into the foothills looking for fertile soil. No one seems to know what started the feud, not even the participants.

Bob Travis and his body guard, Bill Mixon, negro, apparently were shot as they were crossing the bridge. Travis' body was found on one bank with a loaded and unfired shot gun by his side and his bodyguard's body was found on the other bank with his hand clutching a fully loaded pistol. Officers said apparently they were taken by surprise and were shot to death before they could fire their weapons.

Officers were searching for Henry Bridges and Reid Birch who were under $500 bond on charges of assault, filed by Bob Travis. Birch also was wanted, officers said, for questioning about the slaying of Walter Travis' father of Bob.

Today's shooting brought the death list to four in the last three months, three members of the Travis clan and one of the Bridges clan.

Russia's New Plan

Russia has inaugurated a new five-year plan, under which production will be increased 300 to 800 per cent by 1937. At the end of the second five-year period it is hoped to have Russian production of all sorts of economic goods equal to that of the United States before the World War. The aim of the Soviet government is to make Russia self-sustaining.

Russia has 150,000,000 consumers. She has never had enough goods for them, and only since she undertook to industrialize has she produced in quantity any of the manufactured necessities of life. Her production of agricultural goods has also been speeded up, because there has never been enough to adequately feed her population. Russia is on the road to a mass production that will supply her people with everything they need, and the system she has adopted will not doubt put everything within reach of all the people.

Meanwhile the United States, fully equipped to produce practically everything needed by its population of 125,000,000, has taken the opposite course and has set out to restrict production. We have put on the brakes before our consumer demand has been fully satisfied, with a view to controlling prices. At the bottom of this mistake is the profit system which demands heavy toll for investment capital. Our system of distribution is also inadequate.

Fighting Mosquitoes

One of the most constructive projects now using Civil Works labor in the south is the battle against mosquitoes which breed in the salt marshes. Dade county, Fla., has 1,000 negro laborers employed, and throughout the coastal region and on the Florida keys, the work is under way. The men receive 40 cents an hour for six hours work each day.

The main job is digging ditches. Mosquitoes breed in the marsh mud where they know water will soon come. Ditches are run into the breeding grounds, and small minnows allowed to swim in from open water. These fish feed on mosquito larvae and thus destroy millions of young mosquitoes before they can become old enough to spread disease among human beings.

The fish devour many times their own weight each day. They are most voracious, and by the digging of ditches, their appetite is made to serve humanity. The project costs little and its benefits to the people of the south can hardly be measured in dollars and cents.

With the government employing millions of men, this country is seeing constructive service that will leave its helpful influence with future generations. The government has put to work a peace time army at a cost far less than one recruited for war. It is as logical to pay men to create healthful conditions and to preserve human life as to pay them to kill people. The idea is certainly more sane.

Up To Uncle Sam

It was not much of a happy New Year for Ferenz Losser, his wife and children in Chicago. The United States Immigration department has ordered them deported to a country which does not exist. Mr. and Mrs. Losser are natives of Austria-Hungary, but the map of Europe has been changed since they left Vienna, and there is no longer any such country.

After the World War they traveled about the world and finally settled in Chicago in 1924. Losser acquired property and centered his interests in the Illinois city; he owns the place where he lives. Two children one seven, the other four, were born in Chicago. Now the family are worried by a deportation order they had no reason to expect.

It would seem that this is not the worry of the Losser family, but of Uncle Sam, who has precipitated the difficulty. It is another mistake of an immigration service burdened with red tape and lacking in the human viewpoint. If this family is deported anywhere, it will be a stupid move. It would be much wiser to open the way for the family to obtain legal naturalization. Apparently their only mistake has been a failure to seek citizenship.

Making It Happy New Year

One of the ingredients necessary to a happy New Year is hope. There seems to be more of it on hand today than for several years. Our troubles are not over with yet, by any means, but more of us now feel that something has already been done about them and that more will be done as the months pass. The evidence of good works accomplished is the best sort of promise of further accomplishment.

Another ingredient is courage. There has been an amazing amount of that right along. If there was danger of its falling us, recent months have renewed it.

Faith is important. Faith is similar to hope, but stronger. The one is based on inner wishing and outer prospects. The other is intelligent acceptance of fundamental principles.

Thinking, planning and determination to act in accordance with sound thought and plans are ingredients too often overlooked in New Year celebrations, but they are most important in building a happy year. Of course, there is luck, good and bad, according to our limited human estimate. But with the other ingredients, particularly faith and courage, good luck has a better chance to reach us and bad luck can be better borne.

All right, let's go—Happy New Year.

Task of Regimenting Hours, Wages Now Facing NRA

Washington, Jan. 1.—(AP)—The NRA today set itself a task of regimenting the hours and wages of industry, if possible—the wages and hours of industries employing between four and six million workers.

Taking stocks as the year ended, the Recovery Administration estimated that "some 4,000,000 workers have been restored to gainful employment" and that basic wages had been raised and maximum hours reduced in industries employing between eighteen and twenty million people.

Thus, said NRA, the 182 blue eagle codes thus far created cover the biggest part of the most important industries while the hundreds of codes remaining to be prepared are centered mainly upon less important groups.

Tens of thousands of blue eagles continued on display today despite the expiration yesterday of the original president's reemployment agreement under which some 3,000,000 employers won the right to fly the insignia.

Most of those blanketed by the original agreement have since been covered by mandatory codes. President Roosevelt has invited all not so covered to continue the voluntary agreement until May, but those not desiring may take down their blue eagle and go back to unregulated wages and hours unless covered by a mandatory code.

The NRA in its review recorded testimony by many business reforms ranging from bans on child labor and the sweat-shop to higher standards in advertising.

Almost simultaneously, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, said in a New Year's message that the future looks "bright and reassuring."

MOE ROSENBERG IMPROVES AFTER OPERATION, CLAIM

Chicago, Jan. 1.—(AP)—Physicians attending Moe Rosenberg, west side democratic politician, facing trial in federal court as an income tax dodger, said today that he had emerged in good condition from the emergency operation performed for appendicitis.

Rosenberg was rushed to the Frances Willard hospital late last night and was operated on a midnight. The statement concerning his condition was issued by his family physician, Dr. Stanley Marmor and Dr. Allen Stewart, chief surgeon of the hospital.

Both predicted "speedy recovery unless complications set in."

Meanwhile, the government faced most certain delay in its case which is set to go to trial tomorrow before Federal Judge James H. Wilderson on charges that the defendant failed to pay income taxes amounting to approximately $65,000.

The case so far has been marked by efforts of Rosenberg to avoid bringing the charges to a hearing, the most recent one being his trip last week to Washington where he failed in an offer to settle out of court.

COAL TOWNS MAY BE PICKETED BY NEW PMA ORDERS

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 1.—(AP)—Picketing, a frequent source of rioting, was threatened today in Illinois coal towns by the strike committee of the Progressive Miners of America.

"Be in readiness" was the word that went out from the union's headquarters at Gillespie, with another complaint that the NRA coal code is being violated by the mines that have refused to recognize Progressives and have hired men only from locals of the United Mine Workers of America.

It is possible that picketing of Peabody and some other mines would start this week.

Violence was reported this morning from Lanesville, in Christian county, where a bomb damaged the home of Virgil Tamburni, a Progressive member who has been employed recently on a CWA project.

The strike committee's resolution repeated the Progressive claims that part of the mines are violating the coal code and declared that the union had been unable to get action on its demands otherwise.

SPRINGFIELD GIRL NEW MACMURRAY INSTRUCTOR

Miss Martha Woods, of Springfield, will assume her duties this week as instructor in physical education at MacMurray college, a position to which she was recently appointed.

Miss Woods is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Woods, 531 North Seventh street, Springfield. She graduated from MacMurray in the class of 1932, and has since been in charge of the women's athletic department of the Knights of Columbus in Springfield. She has served as instructor in swimming and life saving and as director of the gymnasium classes. Miss Woods is a member of the Life Saving Examiners' Board in Springfield, and is well known for her ability as a swimmer.

Grace Church Doings

At the morning worship service Dr. Havighurst prefaced his sermon by making brief comment upon present day conditions. His formal sermon was appropriate to the closing of the old year and the beginning of the New Year.

In the evening service the pastor made a strong appeal for the individual Christian life for the ensuing year. The music at both worship services was appealing and worshipful.

Sunday school attendance was 278 and the offering $8.02. The two leagues joined in a union service at 6:30 with Miss Miriam Havighurst as the leader.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. C. P. McClelland, 339 East State street on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The mid-week prayer service will meet as usual on Wednesday evening at 7:30. Begin the New Year by attendance at the prayer service. A special meeting.

Cass County Sheriff Wounded, Beardstown Man Slain in Battle

Virginia, Jan. 1.—George Underbrink, 50, Beardstown "bad man", is dead, and Sheriff Edwin Reichert is in Schmitt Memorial hospital, suffering from painful wounds in the head as the result of a gun battle at Beardstown last night when a posse of county officers, city police and Burlington special agents routed Underbrink from his burning shack and killed him. Sheriff Reichert was wounded when he and George Farrar, Beardstown chief of police attempted to break into Underbrink's cabin in the "Gobler Knob" district at the corner of Eighth and Wall streets.

The sheriff had broken the lock from the door. Chief Farrar had just warned him there was danger when Underbrink fired a charge from a 10-gauge shotgun thru the door. Eleven shot struck Reichert in the forehead. He was taken at once to the hospital, but was later removed to his home at the county jail here.

This morning, however, Sheriff Reichert was returned to the hospital at Beardstown, where he will remain for a few days. Physicians thought best to keep him under close observation to prevent infection in his wounds. Some of the shot were extracted, and others are expected to work out of themselves. Two of the shot penetrated the skull, where they were imbedded.

Hits Officer With Sledge
Trouble started at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon when two special agents for the C. B. & Q. railroad, G. C. Cummins and D. N. Youngren, encountered Underbrink on the charge of stealing coal. The officers discovered the man throwing coal from a car in the local yards. When they attempted to arrest him, Underbrink struck Youngren with a heavy sledge hammer which he had been using to break coal.

The blow broke Youngren's right hand and inflicted a bad scalp wound. Cummins took Youngren to a physician's office and sought aid to arrest Underbrink. Sheriff Reichert, Chief of Police George Farrar, Policeman Rude Bockmeier and Cummins went to the old boat cabin, which Underbrink used for a bachelor home, to arrest him.

To the police command to come out and surrender, Underbrink answered with curses.

"If you want me you'll have to come and get me," he shouted.

Shoots Through Door
Sheriff Reichert and Chief Farrar approached the cabin and attempted to break the lock from the door. Just as Farrar was warning Reichert of the danger, Underbrink fired a charge from a ten gauge shotgun through the door. A portion of the charge struck the sheriff above the eyes. Reichert was hurried to the hospital while the other officers continued their efforts to capture Underbrink.

The besiegers fired several shots into the shanty and the hunted man answered them shot for shot. When Underbrink ignored all commands to surrender the police decided to fire the shack. In spite of Underbrink's gun, which boomed at frequent intervals, a fire was started on the roof of the building.

Officers surrounded the shanty and waited for the man to come out. Soon after the fire started, Underbrink attempted to leave through the front door, and was shot in the head by the Cummings, who guarded that side of the shack, with a short barreled shotgun. Underbrink died instantly.

Officers extinguished the fire after the shooting.

Underbrink's body was taken to the Cline funeral home where Coroner Charles Gersmeyer made arrangements for an inquest.

Underbrink, so far as known, had no relatives in this part of the county. He lived alone and had no regular employment. He was regarded by many as a dangerous man and recently had been implicated in one stabbing and at least two shooting affrays. He had been arrested on numerous occasions but never convicted of a crime.

CLERK GETS WORD FROM AUDITOR TO DROP STATE TAX

Official notification to abolish the state tax in extending taxes here this year has been received by County Clerk F. W. Brockhouse from Edward J. Barrett, State Auditor. Property taxes in Morgan county are expected to be considerably lower as the result of this action.

The following letter was sent to the county clerk:

Dear Sir: I hereby certify that on December 27th, 1933, there was filed in the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts, pursuant to authority invested by Law in the Governor, State Treasurer and Auditor of Public Accounts of the State of Illinois, an instrument executed by the Governor, State Treasurer and myself as Auditor, declaring that for the year 1933 no general property tax for State purposes shall be extended.

I take great pleasure in advising you of the above action, and it will not be necessary for you to extend the general property taxes for state purposes for the year 1933.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. BARRETT.

JERSEY COUNTY FARM-HOME WORK NOW UNDER WAY

Jerseyville, Jan. 1.—The Farm Home Survey in Jersey county has been launched under the supervision of Miss Helen Corzine of Jerseyville. Assignment of workers had been made to the various townships of the county by Miss Corzine several days ago, and questionnaires were received from the Federal Works Administration which is sponsoring the work in the state of Illinois.

The general information to be obtained consists first regarding the type of house, whether log, earthen, frame (unpainted, painted, stucco), brick, stone or concrete. Age of the house, total number of rooms in use and not in use with the total number of occupants.

The present condition of the house is taken into consideration and is classified as good, fair or poor. Then each part of the house is checked as to the named classifications. The parts considered in the checkup are the foundation, walls, exterior, roof, chimneys, doors and windows, screens, paint exterior, interior walls and ceilings, floors, stairs, insulation.

The space requirements are then checked relative to the number of rooms in the present structure and the number of additional rooms needed. This checkup includes in order, bedroom, living room, dining room, kitchen work room, wash room for farm help, bath room, halls, basement, closets, front or side porch, back porch and storage space for fresh fruits and vegetables.

Investigate Water Supply
The problem of water supply and sewage disposal is considered in the following order: have now; repairs or alterations needed; new installation needed. This is checked in the following manner: source of water; well, driven or drilled; well, dug or bored; spring, cistern, stream. Water supply for the house; carried, distance carried; handpump in dwelling; piped, cold; piped, hot. Sanitary facilities; outdoor toilet, improved, unimproved; indoor, chemical, flush; bathroom fixtures, tub, shower, lavatory; kitchen sink with drain; disposal of sewage, septic tank, cess pool, stream.

During a recent visit in Jerseyville, Gordon Wiles, art director for Fox Films and now director of some of that company's most recent work, commented on the beauty of the work to be found in many of the old residences in Jersey county. The eastern people who settled Jersey county came to a great extent from New Jersey and from a section of that state noted for its wood workers.

These artisans brought with them their knowledge and some magnificent wood carving and work is to be found in old homes of the vicinity. In the survey now under way in the county, the light and heat conditions will be checked. Under lighting the following will be ascertained: kerosene or gasoline lamps; acetylene piped gas; electric; home plant; power line; distance to nearest power line. Heating, fireplaces, stoves, circulating heater, pipeless furnace, piped warm air, steam or water furnace.

Many Other Questions
The refrigeration facilities, laundry and cooking are surveyed in the following manner: refrigeration, ice, mechanical; laundry, where done, out-of-doors, in kitchen, in basement, in special room and same level with kitchen; equipment, fixed tubs, power machines, hand machine; cooking facilities, wood or coal stoves, kerosene or gasoline stove, gas stove, electric stove.

The landscaping about the house is also included in the survey under three heads, present condition, repairs or alterations needed and new installations needed. Under the mentioned headings is considered the yard as follows: surface drainage away from house; lawn established; plantings; walks and drives; fences.

A summary of the relative importance of repairs and improvements is sought from the home owner. The question is asked, were the following amounts available for improving your home what would you spend them for, $500, $250 and $100? Then is listed the following: house repairs and improvement, foundation, exterior walls, roof, chimneys, doors, windows, screens, porches, interior walls, ceilings, floors, additional room, water system, sanitary facilities, lighting system, heating system, bath room equipment, laundry facilities, cooking facilities, landscaping, electricity (home plant, power line), built in equipment, furnishings.

The questionnaire concludes with the definite inquiry regarding the building of a new home within the next three years. In case no new home is contemplated the repairs and replacements to the old one in the next 12 months. The interest of the party is sought in case money to finance construction should be available at a satisfactory interest rate with repayments extended over a period of ten years.

Parties working on the survey are Misses Mary Winifred Fleming, Alta Cottingham, Myra Fitzpatrick, Edith McCollister, Alta Cottingham, Ruth McPherson.

Dr. and Mrs. O. O. Snedeker and daughter, Frances, of Detroit, Mich., have returned to their home after spending the holidays here at the home of Dr. Snedeker's mother, Mrs. Anna Snedeker and with relatives in Kirksville, Mo.

Mrs. Louella Birkenmeyer and her brother, W. S. Pigott, have returned from Peoria, where they spent the holidays at the home of the former's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Drury.

Jerseyville, Jan. 1.—Miss Harriet Thatcher and Miss Roberta Lee Smith were guests of honor at a surprise party given Friday evening at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Thatcher, in Barr place. The event was in observance of the birthday anniversaries of the two girls which occurred Friday and Saturday, Dec. 29 and 30.

The evening was spent in dancing and playing games. The young guests were later invited into the sunroom where two long tables had been arranged for the refreshments. The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations of the house and the table appointments. Each guest received a seasonal favor.

The out of town guests were Teddy Catt of Alton and Robert Stanley of Beardstown. Twenty-three young people were present at the affair.

Double funeral services were held Sunday, Dec. 31, at the Hartford church west of Grafton for Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Metzler who died last week at their home near Grafton. Rev. Henry Heyer of Grafton officiated at the funerals which took place at 2 o'clock. Interment was in the Hartford cemetery.

Mrs. Metzler died on Christmas day and her husband died four days later, both being victims of pneumonia.

Suspected of Robbery
Judge Fred W. Howell, Sheriff B. L. McDow, Jesse Seago and George C. Zell went to Edwardsville last week to interview three youths incarcerated in the county jail there on charges who are believed to have been implicated in a Jerseyville robbery also.

It is thought the boys took an automobile belonging to County Clerk C. H. Terry on Dec. 22, and also participated in the robbery of the Jesse Seago residence here the same night. The Terry machine was found abandoned on Route 160 near Hamel and another car was stolen from Hamel the same night the Jerseyville car was left. The boys were picked up for the theft of the Hamel car, and two watches, rings and other trinkets taken from the Seago residence here were found in their possession.

The three who gave their names as Clyde Wagner and Charles Dixon of Alton and Delmon Pendleton of Granite City deny they were in Jerseyville the night the robberies took place. They claim they purchased the articles from a man named Schwarz in Alton who was on his way to Arkansas and allege they paid him seventy-five cents for the goods.

A suit of clothes taken from the Seago home was not recovered but it is thought the garments were pawned in Alton prior to the boys' arrest.

Called to Kansas
Mrs. Pearl Wright and Miss Pauline Hale left Friday evening for Pomona.

"CHRIST JESUS" IS SERMON SUBJECT SUNDAY

"Christ Jesus" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ Sunday, yesterday.

The Golden Text was, "Thou, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting" (Micah 5:2).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Then spake Jesus unto them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life" (John 8:12).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus represented Christ, the true idea of God. Christ presents the indestructible man, whom Spirit creates, constitutes, and governs. Christ, illustrates that blending with God, his divine Principle, which gives man dominion over all the earth" (p. 316).

BANDITS GET $25 FROM NEW BERLIN FILLING STATION

New Berlin, Jan. 1.—Two armed bandits entered the Phillips filling station here last night while a customer remained outside in a car, and held up the attendant, Thomas Davis. They procured about $25.

The bandits worked the old stunt of driving up and ordering gasoline, then sticking a gun against the attendant and making him go into the station. Davis was warned by the pair "not to make a noise and not to mess around." They made him stand with his face to the wall while they gathered up all of the money available.

He said both men appeared to be between 25 and 30 years old. Neither was masked and both carried revolvers. The bandit car went west out of New Berlin.

COLUMBIA BEATS STANFORD 7 TO 0; WEST WINS

Quick-Thinking Lions From East Use Hidden Ball Play To Win Game From Indians

By Brian Bell
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1.—A quick-thinking, ball-finding band of Columbia Lions today conquered the most amazing football magic in the 19 years of Rose Bowl competition to defeat Stanford's Indians, 7 to 0, as a crowd of approximately 40,000 looked on in astonishment.

On a flood-soaked field, the New Yorkers put together two great plays in the second period to score the only touchdown of the contest and then stopped every drive the big western eleven could muster.

A sensational forward pass from Cliff Montgomery to Tony Matal gave the easterners the ball on Stanford's 17 yard line and on the next play, Al Barabas galloped across the goal line with much to spare, near him, on a smart hidden ball play.

Stanford threatened at frequent intervals, but could not sustain its drive across the goal line. The Indians came out apparently fired to the "nth degree" at the start of the second half and sent Bobby Grayson scurrying 60 yards in five plays, dashes of 25 and 19 yards swelling the total, but nothing came of the impressive drive as a holding penalty brought it up short.

Later a pass from Grayson to Keith Topping left the Indians again knocking at the door but inside the Lions 15 yard line Grayson fumbled and the alert Montgomery recovered.

Montgomery's kick of the water-logged ball did not carry very far—only to the 35 yard line—and with Grayson picking up 13 yards here and six and seven there, Stanford soon had a first down on Columbia's three yard line. Grayson was stopped with two yards in two plays, fumbled to a yard and then fumbled again on fourth down, where Ed Brominski, the defensive star of the game, fell on the ball on the one yard line, marking the Indian's greatest advance.

Columbia was conceded no chance to win the game and the best the experts could concede the visitors was that they might make it close. Outweighed 17 pounds and said to be lacking in reserves, the lads from Morningstar Heights were held at 2-1-2 in the little waning before the game. Odds of 6 to 2 could be had that Stanford would win by 13 points.

The only trouble from the standpoint of the western representative was that the visitors did not know they had no chance. As for the reserves, Coach Lou Little did not need them, playing the gruelling game on wet grounds and partly in the rain with 15 men.

The deception of the winners scored their winning touchdown for them and their ability as ball hawks saved it for them. Columbia recovered five Stanford fumbles and proved better handers of a wet ball than the losers.

The game was played on a wet, but fairly substantial turf. Three days' rain had made it doubtful yesterday that the field could be placed in shape for play today, but Pasadena firemen rallied round with hose and pumped it free of water before game time. The Lions were surprised at the firm footing and at half time discarded their cleats and returned to regular football footwear.

There was some slipping and sliding, but on the whole the ball carriers adjusted their momentum to the footing with fine results. Cliff Montgomery and Bobby Grayson were the running stars for the two teams and time after time the two fleet backs broke into the open for substantial gains. Especially was Grayson hard to stop and on both reverses and fake reverses he gained deep into Columbia territory.

The fast charging Columbia line stopped the Palo Alto Will o' Wisp when he tried to slip through when close to the goal, where the pay-off eluded him all day.

The two coaches, Little and Tiny Thornhill of Stanford, had only compliments for each other after the game.

"A great team, Columbia," said Thornhill. "We have no alibi. We knew it was a really great team and would put up a great show. That's why we invited it to play for the east. No sir, there is no alibi from Stanford."

"Stanford is the best team we played all year," said Little. "It was a clean game, and a great one to watch. Naturally there are just not enough words to describe how I feel over our boys beating such a great outfit."

Stanford won all the arguments but the game. In yards gained from running, the Indians had a big advantage, 272 to 114. The losers scored 11 first downs and the winners but three.

Columbia was expected to cut the heavier Indians down to its size by passing, but threw only two, completing one as a direct preliminary to the game's only touchdown. Stanford tried 12 and completed 2.

CARNERA, MATCHED WITH LOUGHRAN

New York, Jan. 1.—(AP)—Madison Square Garden authorities tonight announced that final approval of a heavyweight title bout at Miami Feb. 22 between Primo Carnera and Tommy Loughran had been received from Louis Sorel, Carnera's Italian manager.

The match was arranged several weeks ago by Joe Smith, Loughran's manager, and Bill Duffy, Carnera's American representative, subject to final approval by Sorel. This, the garden announced, was received today by cable from Milan.

"Final arrangements for the match," said the garden announcement, "have been made subject to the approval of Florida authorities."

Carnera will sail for the United States January 10 to begin training for the 15-round title defense, his second since he won the crown from Jack Sharkey on June 17, 1933. He outpointed Paulino Uscudini at Rome Oct. 22.

The garden revealed at the same time that negotiations had virtually been completed for a light heavyweight title bout between Maxey Rosenberg of New York and Joe Knight of Orlando, Fla., at Miami, Feb. 1, giving the Florida city the world's championship matches in the span of one month. This bout, articles for which are slated to be signed tomorrow, also will be held in the garden bowl at Miami.

Illinois College To Open New Year With Basketball Battle

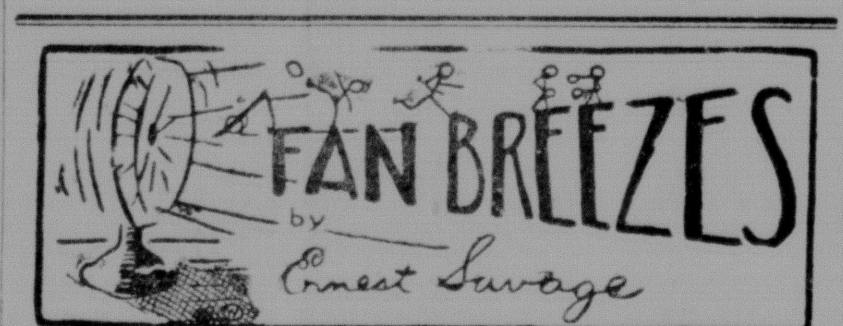

Illinois College will attempt to open the new year with a basketball victory tonight on the Illinois School for the Deaf court, meeting Western Teachers of Macomb in their third Little 19 conference game of the season, and the first game of three games to be played this week. The Blueboys will make only one appearance at home this week, however, playing Eureka and Carthage Friday and Saturday nights.

Two games are listed for tonight's program with the Blueboys reserves meeting an independent team from Springfield on which Freddie Stanton former Blueboy eager, is now playing. The game will be called at seven o'clock, and the main tilt is scheduled to begin at eight o'clock.

Athletic Director Van Meter said last night that he has no idea of the strength of the Leathernecks this year, but it is his understanding that they have another strong team. The Teachers and Blueboys have been putting on thrilling games here for the past few years, and if history has anything to do with basketball, another tight contest is on tap. The Teachers defeated Iowa Wesleyan before the Christmas holidays.

The Blueboys starting line-up probably will be Norbert Miller, White Hall freshman, John Bunch, Louis Lasiter, Hubert Pearce and Capt. Jimmy Winn. Cochrane, Springfield freshman, and Sarff, freshman from Bath, probably will get into the game before it is over.

Illinois has played three games thus far, losing two in the conference, and winning the only inter-sectional game it has played. Millikin defeated Illinois in an overtime 33-30, Southern Teachers won with a last half rally 31-26, and the Blueboys nosed out Mississippi College 39-37.

Things are beginning to look up in a big way in Jacksonville.

A new grandstand is going to start upwards on the lake Maitaville ball diamond, J. H. S. is getting a new football field and running track. I. S. D. may be getting a new football field and track, there may be another municipally owned baseball diamond in operation here next year, and in general, it seems that the city is getting ready to take care of its people during those leisure hours.

Old 1933 wasn't so bad when you consider that all of these things had their beginnings back there, and it means that there must be a lot of hustle during 1934 to keep up the record.

Construction of the new grandstand will start immediately, members of the park board decided last night at a meeting. They want to get the building up, and the grading work completed on the ball diamond before the spring thaw, in order to have a smooth playing field ready to open the season.

Illinois College is playing its first game of basketball in the New Year tonight, and they appear to be ready to hit their stride. Van Meter has assembled a bunch of good looking basket tossers, and they got the ragged game out of their system against Mississippi.

HUNK ANDERSON TO COACH N. C.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 1.—(AP)—Dr. R. Sermon, athletic director at North Carolina State College, announced here tonight that Hunk W. (Hunk) Anderson, former mentor at Notre Dame, and T. S. Johnson, acting chairman of the college's athletic council, came to terms today in Washington, D. C., Dr. Sermon said.

No details of the contract, except that it called for a three-year engagement, were given.

The athletic council is scheduled to meet here tomorrow.

Anderson will succeed John P. "Clippie" Smith, who was ousted shortly after the close of last year's football season.

The man who led the Notre Dame eleven for the past three seasons is expected to come to Raleigh in time for the start of State's winter football drills January 15.

Anderson conferred with the council when it met here December 20 to consider a successor to Smith. Following that meeting it was reported that Anderson was No. 1 man on the long list of applicants.

Anderson was a guard in his playing days at Notre Dame and in 1931 his senior year, was a member of the South Bend school's western championship team. He was among the early "watch charm" guards used by Rockne.

After his graduation in the spring of 1922, Anderson became an assistant to the late Knute Rockne, the Notre Dame coach. He held this position until 1928 when he left for two years to become head coach at St. Louis University at St. Louis.

Upon returning to Notre Dame, he helped Rockne develop the 1930 national championship eleven. He became head coach upon Rockne's tragic death in a Kansas airplane crash early in 1931, and resigned at the end of the 1933 season. His successor is Elmer Layden one of the "four Horsemen" and 1933 grid coach at Duquesne University.

George Sauer's Brilliant Playing Gives Boys From Pacific Coast 12-0 Victory

By Russell J. Newland
Kezar Stadium, San Francisco, Jan. 1.—(AP)—Led by a crashing backfield star, George Sauer of the University of Nebraska, West conquered East 12-0 today in the football classic played here annually for charity.

Thirty thousand fans, who braved intermittent rains, saw the blonde haired Sauer, turn in as brilliant a performance as has ever been witnessed in the nine games that have been played to date.

From the time he crashed over for a two touchdown drive in the opening period until he intercepted a pass in the closing minutes of play to check a final eastern bid, the Nebraska demonstrated just why he was selected for all-American honors after the 1933 season.

On offense, Sauer was the spark-plug of the western attack and his defensive play left nothing to be desired.

With the big Nebraska boy out of the lineup it might have been a different story. His team mates turned in a fine brand of "heads up" football but in the final checkup it was his line smashing performance in the first quarter that resulted in the two touchdowns while his last-minute interception of the pass resulted in the East leaving the field without a score.

The West snatched at a "break" to make its first score. The Easterners were backed up on their own nine yard line but in possession of the ball, Charley Soleau of Colgate, quarterback, fumbled the ball and Mike Mikulak of Oregon, fullback, recovered it on the sixteen yard line.

From there Sarboe of Washington State, quarterback, ripped off four yards and then Sauer took up the burden. On his fourth run with the ball, the Nebraska crashed over from the three yard line.

A short time later, the West put the ball into play on the East's 46 yard line. Sarboe picked up a yard and then passed to Fred Carinus, end, St. Mary's, for a seventeen yard gain.

It put the oval on the East's 28 and on the next play, Sauer broke through right tackle and continued over the goal line.

Bill Smith, end, Washington, failed to convert the two tries for point. One of his place kick attempts was wide and the other was blocked.

Beginning with the second period, the eastern team opened an attack that had their western rivals on the defense most of the time until the end of the game.

Three times the east, coached by Andy Kerr of Colgate and Dick Hanley of Northwestern, put on spectacular drives only to lose out on scoring chances when close to the goal.

In the third period the visiting stars moved the ball down the field for 64 yards to reach the west's seven yard line. The ball was lost on an intercepted pass, Cuppoletti, guard, Oregon, catching a toss by Luke's fullback, Notre Dame, on the twelve yard line.

Shortly afterward the east managed to intercept a pass, but the ball was recovered for the west on the east's 31 yard line, then lost two. From this point, Carl Jorgensen, tackle, St. Mary's, place kicked but the ball was too far to the side.

The east retaliated with a seventy yard march, the longest of the game, losing the ball when Beattie Feathers, fullback, Tennessee, tossed a pass that fell incomplete over the goal line.

Sauer punted 63 yards to send the easterners back to their own seventeen yard line. It failed to daunt the visitors, who in two plays were back knocking at the western goal.

Ed Danowski, fullback, of St. m. who occupied a starring role for the east, before being downed on the team. He tossed a pass to Winston Anderson, end, that gained thirteen yards and put the ball on the thirty yard mark. On the next play the husky Fordham boy whipped a forward to Anderson who tossed a lateral to Feathers and the latter ran 46 yards before being downed on the west's fourteen yard line.

Feathers was downed by John Norby, halfback, of Idaho. It was the best run of the day and the only time the speedy Tennessee back was able to break away.

From the fourteen yard line, the easterners reached the five yard line on two plunges by Danowski. Feathers then lost four yards and a pass by Joe Laws, halfback, from Iowa, was intercepted by Sauer. The game ended shortly afterward.

The play of Danowski stood out among the eastern ball carriers, while Chuck Barnard, center, of Michigan, won applause for his work on the line.

Sauer was the individual star on the field, while his team mates, Norby and Bree Cuppoletti, were defensive giants.

Statistically the east outplayed the boys coached by Orin Hollingsbury of Washington State and Percy Lacey of Denver. The easterners made sixteen first downs to seven for their rivals. The east chucked up 147 yards from scrimmage and 143 yards from eight passes. The west had 140 yards from scrimmage and thirty from two passes.

It was the sixth time since the game was inaugurated in 1925 that a western team has triumphed, with the east winning the other three.

Later a pass from Grayson to Keith Topping left the Indians again knocking at the door but inside the Lions 15 yard line Grayson fumbled and the alert Montgomery recovered.

Montgomery's kick of the water-logged ball did not carry very far—only to the 35 yard line—and with Grayson picking up 13 yards here and six and seven there, Stanford soon had a first down on Columbia's three yard line. Grayson was stopped with two yards in two plays, fumbled to a yard and then fumbled again on fourth down, where Ed Brominski, the defensive star of the game, fell on the ball on the one yard line, marking the Indian's greatest advance.

Columbia was conceded no chance to win the game and the best the experts could concede the visitors was that they might make it close. Outweighed 17 pounds and said to be lacking in reserves, the lads from Morningstar Heights were held at 2-1-2 in the little waning before the game. Odds of 6 to 2 could be had that Stanford would win by 13 points.

The only trouble from the standpoint of the western representative was that the visitors did not know they had no chance. As for the reserves, Coach Lou Little did not need them, playing the gruelling game on wet grounds and partly in the rain with 15 men.

The deception of the winners scored their winning touchdown for them and their ability as ball hawks saved it for them. Columbia recovered five Stanford fumbles and proved better handers of a wet ball than the losers.

The game was played on a wet, but fairly substantial turf. Three days' rain had made it doubtful yesterday that the field could be placed in shape for play today, but Pasadena firemen rallied round with hose and pumped it free of water before game time. The Lions were surprised at the firm footing and at half time discarded their cleats and returned to regular football footwear.

There was some slipping and sliding, but on the whole the ball carriers adjusted their momentum to the footing with fine results. Cliff Montgomery and Bobby Grayson were the running stars for the two teams and time after time the two fleet backs broke into the open for substantial gains. Especially was Grayson hard to stop and on both reverses and fake reverses he gained deep into Columbia territory.

The fast charging Columbia line stopped the Palo Alto Will o' Wisp when he tried to slip through when close to the goal, where the pay-off eluded him all day.

The two coaches, Little and Tiny Thornhill of Stanford, had only compliments for each other after the game.

"A great team, Columbia," said Thornhill. "We have no alibi. We knew it was a really great team and would put up a great show. That's why we invited it to play for the east. No sir, there is no alibi from Stanford."

"Stanford is the best team we played all year," said Little. "It was a clean game, and a great one to watch. Naturally there are just not enough words to describe how I feel over our boys beating such a great outfit."

Stanford won all the arguments but the game. In yards gained from running, the Indians had a big advantage, 272 to 114. The losers scored 11 first downs and the winners but three.

Columbia was expected to cut the heavier Indians down to its size by passing, but threw only two, completing one as a direct preliminary to the game's only touchdown. Stanford tried 12 and completed 2.

SHERIFF KILLED IN WEST; GUARD PAIR FROM MOB

Colorado Officer is Slain in Gunfight at Pool Room

Alamosa, Colo., Jan. 1.—(AP)—Armed guards kept a close watch today over Herbert Rankin, 25, Gilman, Colo., rushed here Sunday from the San Luis, Colo., jail when a mob threatened to lynch him after the slaying of Sheriff Adolfo Rodriguez of Costilla county in a gunfight.

Guards also paced the hospital corridors where George Putnam, 25, wounded during the fight and arrested as a suspect with Rankin, was held. Sheriff Maurice Smith of Alamosa, who saved Rankin from the mob, said he was informed friends of the sheriff had threatened to kill Putnam in his hospital cot. Rankin was slightly wounded.

In another hospital bed was Deputy Sheriff J. P. Maestas, wounded in the battle.

A coroner's jury at San Luis returned a verdict the sheriff was slain by persons unknown. No charges have been filed.

Sheriff Rodriguez was fatally wounded in a San Luis pool hall where where he and his deputy had gone after two men, said by officers to have been Rankin and Putnam, exchanged shots with the two officers on a highway. Sheriff Rodriguez received a slight wound in this encounter.

The officers were seeking to head off bandits who late Saturday night robbed Gordon Howitt, truck driver, near Taos, N. M. Howitt was quoted by Sheriff Smith as saying Putnam was one of the bandits but he could not identify Rankin as one.

Rankin and Putnam were captured by other men in the pool hall after the sheriff was slain.

The two men held were said by officers to have denied they robbed Howitt and explained they did not stop on the highway, at Sheriff Rodriguez' command, because they thought the officers were bandits.

OCEAN HOPS IN TEN HOURS MAY BECOME REALITY

Guggenheim Director Says Aviation to be Developed

Pasadena, Cal., Jan. 1.—(AP)—Transatlantic air transport, with passage in ten to twelve hours, is one of the possibilities that the new year holds for aviation, says Dr. Theodor von Karman.

The director of the Guggenheim aeronautics laboratory of the California Institute of Technology here said today solution of transoceanic air problems between Europe and the country was the next big goal in aviation. He recommended improvement of the meteorological service.

"There are four possibilities at the present time with present types of aircraft," he said.

"The first is the airship. The airship has proved its ability to cross the ocean with a group of passengers and a considerable amount of mail. Its high in comparison with the speed of the fastest ocean liners, but it is rather low in comparison with the speed of the heaviest gales raging over the ocean. It seems that the airship ought to be speeded up, by improvement in design and propulsion.

"The second possibility is the northern route. With several stops, no flight longer than 1,200 miles would be necessary. The feasibility of transportation along this northern airway through the year depends upon a better knowledge of meteorological conditions in the Arctic.

"The third solution is by the use of the direct route, erecting floating islands as docks for landing. This means large capital investments.

"The fourth solution is to fly on a higher level, about half way between the present usual level and the limit of the stratosphere, increasing the range so far that the shortest gap over the Atlantic can be bridged by a non-stop flight with a sufficient payload."

Chicago, Jan. 1.—(AP)—Expiration of the government's milk agreement for Chicago today was followed by an announcement of the Chicago Milk Dealers' Association that a number of smaller dairies were cutting the retail price from 11 to 10 cents a quart.

The Norman brothers were arrested on information furnished by Sheriff W. B. Somers of Wilkes county.

The Normans, former neighbors of the Tilley family, both have police records here.

SECURITIES ACT TO NOT IMPEDE CAPITAL, CLAIM

Federal Trade Group Addressing Denial to Congress

Washington, Jan. 1.—(AP)—The Federal Trade Commission is addressing to congress a flat denial that the "truth in securities" act will interfere greatly with the flow of legitimate capital.

In its annual report the commission asserts that while its insistence on the publication of full information about a new stock or bond does not judge the soundness or value of the security, such publication "will prevent a large part of the frauds that have heretofore been practiced."

"It will be the purpose of the Federal Trade Commission," the report says, "to prevent further exploitation of the public by the sale of fraudulent and worthless securities through misrepresentation, to cause to be placed adequate and true information before investors, and to protect honest enterprise seeking capital against the competition made by securities offered through dishonest promotion and misrepresentation."

While the commission intends to administer the act so as to give purchasers of securities full and accurate information, at the same time neither the act nor its administration will offer any serious obstacles to the legitimate financing of legitimate business.

Investment bankers and others have urged that the securities act's liabilities clause be dropped. The underwriters and corporations from floor-writing new issues on the ground they would be held unreasonably liable for inadvertent omissions or misstatements.

MICHIGAN DOCTOR GIVEN PRIZE FOR WORK IN SCIENCE

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 1.—(AP)—Dr. Reuben L. Kahn, of the University of Michigan, today held the $1,000 prize of the American Association for the Advancement of Science—awarded for a discovery promising to extend many fold the possibilities of immunizing human beings against disease.

Dr. Kahn, 46, a naturalized citizen who came to this country from Kovno, Lithuania, is a bacteriologist, and is already well-known for discovering the Kahn test for syphilis.

The prize was awarded for a "noteworthy paper," which won in competition with 1,407 other papers presented at the association meeting which opened here last week.

Dr. Kahn discovered that blood is not, as hitherto universally believed and taught for years to doctors in their text-books, the principal means of developing immunity.

Instead, the whole body has the same power, and several parts of it, notably the skin, far exceed the immunizing possibilities of the blood.

About 730,000 seeds a year are produced by the false flaxplant.

ROUTE 100 MAY BE OPENED FOR TRAFFIC SOON

Prospects that the Beardstown-Mercedosa section of state highway route 100 will be open for travel by the end of January are entertained now. R. R. Shewmaker, foreman for the Aroole Construction company of Niles Center, Ill., which has the contract for the building of a bridge over Indian creek, says that the bridge will be finished by that time. The pavement has been completed several weeks. The four-span bridge was started several months ago, but work on the bridge has been slow due to the cold weather. Rain a week ago delayed the job four days longer. At the present time workmen are at work on the fourth and last span and the north abutment of the bridge.

Fewer Arrests Made In City During Past Year Chief Reports

Violators of the law, who were arrested by members of the Jacksonville police department during 1933 were three less than the number against whom charges were placed during 1932, the annual report of Chief of Police Frank Kiloran, issued yesterday shows. Arrests by the police during the past twelve months were 286 Chief Kiloran reports. In 1932 the number of arrests was 289, and in 1931 the total was 294.

However, the arrests made are only a small portion of the work of the local city officers, a glance at the police records show. For each arrest that was made during the past year there were 13 calls for police service. The police "blotter" shows a total of 3830 calls were made during 1933 about 40 per cent of the calls being made to settle domestic troubles. Most of these troubles are settled without arrests being made.

Automobile thieves were less active in Jacksonville during the past year the number of cars stolen during the past twelve months being 58, while in 1932 there were 82 cars stolen. Of the number of machines stolen during the year 56 were recovered, and for other cities the local police recovered three machines, thus making a record of 58 cars stolen in the city and 59 machines recovered.

Of the 286 arrests made during the past year by the local department 48 persons were picked up for investigation. There were 42 arrests made on charges of drunkenness, 41 on charges of larceny, drunkenness and thievery leading the remainder of the misdemeanors substantially. Traffic violators and persons charged with disorderly conduct each had a record of 29 arrests.

There were 13 persons arrested for other cities, eleven persons arrested on burglary charges and the same number on cold checking. Ten persons were arrested by the police for shoplifting, and persons arrested by the police on vagrancy and assault and battery. Charges numbered nine each. Eight arrests were made on delinquency charges. Seven persons were arrested on peace warrants and six arrests were made on charges of assault to kill. There were four arrests on bootlegging, and two each of trespassing and confidence game. Federal violations of the law accounted for two arrests also and the other charges upon which single arrests were made included keeping a nuisance, larceny and rape.

May was the busiest month of the year for the policeman and April was the quietest insofar as arrests were concerned. In May there were 30 arrests, and in April the arrests numbered 16. Arrests made during other months of the year included January 23, February 21, March 19, June 18, July 21, August 25, September 28, October 27, November 26 and December 26.
